MR. FALL MAKES SENSATIONAL CHARGE

Intimates Secretary of Interior Turned Over 232,000 Acres in New Mexico for Use of Cattlemen.

U. S. HORSE FARM SAYS SECRETARY

(Special Correspondence to the Herald)

Washington, D. C., Feb. 17.—In reply to Senator Fall's speech on the floor of the senate charging that the secretary of the interior had withdrawn from entry or sale about 232,000 acres of land in one body, in New Mexico for the use and benefit of some person or persons, provided that they would place 5,000 head of cattle on the land, and without proper restrictions, the secretary of the interior upon request, very promptly and quite willingly handed the correspondence of the Herald all the papers connected with the case. It appears by the papers that upon request of the secretary of agriculture there was set aside of 149,000 acres of surveyed, and 43,000 acres of unsurveyed lands, for the use of a government experiment station, for the improvement of the native grasses, and for a horse farm for raising horses to supply the army. The papers show the request of the secretary of agriculture for the setting aside of the land, the endorsement of the secretary of the interior for the purpose stated, and also the proclamation of the president withdrawing the land for the object and purposes as requested by the secretary of agriculture and the secretary of the interior. It is understood that it will be under the control of the secretary of agriculture.

The land is a few miles north and east of Las Cruces, New Mexico, beginning at section 18, township 19 and range east of the New Mexico principal meridian and fully described by section and township lines. It is a healthy section of the country, and stock get fat on the native gramma grass, which they eat in preference to baled hay, at times.

Senator Fall created something of a sensation in the senate today. Senator Myers, of Montana, had reported his bill to permit the secretary of the interior to withdraw from other disposition and reserve for country parks, public playgrounds, and community centers such tracts as he may deem advisable in each reclamation project or the several units of such reclamation projects under the act of June 17, 1902, and known as the reclamation act. That such land should be supplied with water and the cost be charged against the other land. That the secretary should form a contract with the organization of land owners to carry out the provisions of the act. In case the organization failed to carry out the act that the land should revert to the United States to be disposed of under the public land laws. Senator Fall objected to it applying to New Mexico and explained the small holdings and large holdings of lands, much of it having been held for hundreds of years; particularly near streams where water could be had. He sprung a sensation when he said that he understood the secretary of the interior had made a contract with a certain cattle man, turning over to him 232,000 acres of land provided he would graze 5,000 head of cattle on the land; that $10,000 could be used for expenses; that the secretary of the interior, said he had recommended it because the secretary of agriculture had recommended it. The secretary of agriculture said he recommended it because some person in his department had recommended it to him, according to Senator Fall, who said that was about as much information as he could get after repeated efforts to obtain the facts in the case, but that if he did not soon obtain something more definite he would try to see if the senate could get the facts.

Senator Fall said that he tried to obtain some information in New Mexico in the case. Of course, he said, the beneficiaries were all giving him any information, but an employee of the agricultural department became somewhat uneasy as to the situation and asked him if he (the employee) was not to get his part of the benefit according to the contract. He also referred to a "partnership with certain people" in the transaction. Senator Fall appeared to be desirous to find out, if possible how many were in the "partnership" and who they were.

Returning to the bill Senator Fall said he would not object to the bill if the senator from Montana would make it apply to Montana alone, or any other senator could have it apply to his state if he wanted it.

Senator Smith of Arizona objected. "Suppose," he said, "you tried to take certain land from the Yuma or other irrigation projects in Arizona; where the people had been at great expense in cultivating their lands and he objected to any one coming in and taking their lands away from them. If the people wanted parks or play grounds they could set it aside when and where they wanted to, but he seriously objected to any outside person taking their land from them without their consent."

Mr. Myers accepted Senator Fall's amendment to make it apply only to Montana; and then the bill passed without objection.

McDonald and Party Arrive.

Governor McDonald of New Mexico, and a delegation from the Pecos river, including Judge Richardson, of Roswell, have been having a two days session with First Assistant Secretary A. J. Jones, of the interior department, in regard to drift fences in the Pecos valley. No conclusion has been reached. They may have to go to the attorney general. First Assistant Secretary Jones had Governor McDonald and Judge Richardson as guests at dinner tonight.

C. E. GLEICKLER DIES IN SAN DIEGO, CAL.

News was received today by W. P. Mitchell and other friends here of the death yesterday in San Diego, Cal., of Charles E. Gleickler, for years a well known Albuquerque resident, who left here for the coast for the benefit of his health three years ago. Mr. Gleickler was inclined to heart trouble which it is believed was probably the cause of his death. At the time of his death he still owned a model farm north of this city, which he brought to a high state of cultivation while here and upon which he conducted a dairy for a time. He was about 45 years of age and was survived by his widow and three daughters, all of whom are in San Diego. The Gleickler family has many friends here who will hear of the death of Mr. Gleickler with deep regret.

ROBBERY AND ARSON TRIED AT ORPHEUM

The manager of the Orpheum theater today reported to the police a robbery and an attempt at arson in the theater last night, discovered when the place was opened this morning. He states that a considerable quantity of stage properties is missing and that two oil stoves in the theater had been overturned, evidently while burning and with the idea of setting fire to the place. Because a cement floor the fire made no headway, although there are signs that it had a good start. Considerable property was lost, including several trunks filled with valuable costumes, to be used tonight in the presentation of "The Traffic". A curious feature of the case as reported to the police is that none of the doors or windows into the theater appear to have been opened or tampered with.

Want Sherman Law Let Alone.

Washington, Feb. 17.—Charles Dushkind of New York, representing a committee of ten independent baccy manufacturers, asked the house judiciary committee today to let the Sherman law alone and declared the trouble was the lack of enforcement of the present law. He contended that any attempt to define the law's provisions further might increase trusts and monopolies and produce more litigation.

WILL INVESTIGATE THE UNEMPLOYED

(By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.)

Washington, Feb. 17.—Federal investigation of the problem of the unemployed by the industrial relations commission will be a speedy one and will cover all the large cities from New York to Kansas City. President Wilson today expressed the belief that Chairman Frank P. Walsh had based his estimate of 350,000 men out of work in New York city alone, on current reports and that the figures had been challenged. The president told his callers he had no reports of widespread business depression but to the contrary, had reports that conditions throughout the country were rapidly growing more encouraging.

GLEE CLUB CONCERT A TRIUMPH

Albuquerque Favorites Do Selves Credit in Rendition of Unusually Excellent Program.

The concert given last night by the University of New Mexico Glee club, under the direction of Miss Mary McFie, was another musical success from beginning to end. The club's best artists took part and did much to elicit their popularity. The duet by Mrs. Ada Pierce Winn and Mr. Charles J. Andrews was exceptionally good, their voices blending perfectly, and an insistent encore brought forth a second number equally as pleasing. Mrs. Winn's songs were exquisite, and Mr. Andrews' sympathetic tenor was never heard to better advantage. Mr. Tello, the violinist, heard here for the first time, is a great artist, and his numbers were a treat. The performance of the Glee club was beyond all expectations and its work reflects great credit on the director, Miss McFie. The club's numbers were executed with a finish worthy of the best, the parts perfectly balanced, the shading superb. Every number on the program was enjoyed and every member of the audience it captured fully, appreciated a delightful musical evening.

POLICE ROUND UP CHICKEN THIEVES

Long Series of Poultry Thefts Which Have Troubled Officers and Owners Confessed by One of the Boys.

The long series of chicken thefts which have troubled the police and caused grief to owners for several weeks past was brought to a close and the identity of the thief established this afternoon, when Chief of Police McMillin secured a complete confession from one of three boys who have been committing the poultry yard depredations. All three of the boys belong to prominent families, and none of them seem to have realized the seriousness of the thefts. According to the confession of one of the boys, he and his companions, all small boys, have been systematically sifting up chicken yards and robbing them during the last afternoon or early evening, afterward selling the fowls to markets and restaurants, a Chinese restaurant on South First street apparently having been the principal buyer, although several of the meat markets have purchased a chicken now and then. The boys admitted having participated in every one of the chicken thefts reported to the police during the past four weeks. Chief McMillin believes that the epidemic of poultry losses is now ended.

WISHED SHE COULD DIE

And Be Free From Her Troubles, but Finds Better Way.

Columbia, Tenn.—"Many a time," says Mrs. Jessie Sharp, of this place, "I wished I would die and be relieved of my suffering, from womanly troubles. I could not get up, without pulling at something to help me, and stayed in bed most of the time. I could not do my housework."

The least amount of work tired me out. My head would swim, and I would tremble for an hour or more. Finally, I took Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I am not bothered with pains any more, and I don't have to go to bed. In fact, I am sound and well of all my troubles."

Cardui goes to all the weak spots and helps to make them strong. It acts with nature—not against her. It is for the tired, nervous, irritable women, who feel as if everything were wrong, and need something to quiet their nerves and strengthen the worn-out system.

If you are a woman, suffering from any of the numerous symptoms of womanly trouble, take Cardui. It will help you. At all druggists.

Write to: Chattanooga Medicine Co., Ladies' Advisory Dept., Chattanooga, Tenn., for Cardui. Instructions on your card and 64-page book, "Home Treatment for Women," in plain wrapper. No. 125

Attorney A. B. McMillin, for the First Savings Bank and Trust company, today filed two suits in district court against the Little Vineyards company and Ralph C. Ely, of Deming, for the collection of two notes secured by chattel mortgage. The first suit alleges a balance of $3,750 due on a note of $4,250, and the second a balance due of $328.70 on a note of $400.10. Both notes were given to W. H. Gilenwater by the Little Vineyards company, of which Mr. Ely is president, in payment for 32 milk cows, 22 heifers, 11 heifer calves and certain dairy equipment, constituting what was formerly known as the Gilenwater dairy herd. The notes later were transferred to the Trust company by Mr. Gilenwater.

Judge Reynolds is in Santa Fe today sitting in the hearing of a land grant case for District Judge Abbott.

Naval Bill is Ready.

Washington, Feb. 17.—The naval appropriation bill, with its $145,000,000 appropriation, was before the house naval committee today for final determination of what is to be the administration construction program. Two battleships and accompanying small craft have been recommended by Secretary Daniels and are understood to have the endorsement of President Wilson.

A STAPLE MEDICINE FOR EVERY FAMILY

No Self-Respecting Group of People Should Be Without a Good Family Laxative.

It is inconceivable in this day of general intelligence that any family would be without a simple remedy for the minor ills of life, for often by giving such a remedy in time a serious disease can be frustrated and a life saved.

For example, if at the first sign of a cold a simple laxative like Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin were given, the beginning of a serious lung affection or of a typhoid fever might be avoided. And also in headaches, nervousness, etc., a small dose of this remedy would relieve the congestion and replace distress with comfort. Mothers give it to tiny infants and little children, and grown people take it with equally good effect.

Thousands of good American homes are never without it, among them the home of Mrs. C. A. Wright, 1831 Pasadena Ave., Long Beach, Cal. She had considerable trouble raising little Lawrence, three years old, but after regulating his bowels with small doses of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin he began to thrive and she had no further trouble with him. They use it generally in her home.

Syrup Pepsin saves the health of the family, and it saves doctors' bills. It is a guaranteed cure for any form of constipation, liver and bowel trouble, indigestion, biliousness, gas in the stomach, headaches, drowsiness after eating, etc. Have no hesitation about giving it to any member of the family, however young or old, for it contains nothing injurious to the youngest person.

A bottle can be obtained at any nearby drug store for fifty cents or one dollar. The latter size is more economical and is bought by those who have already convinced themselves of its merits. Syrup Pepsin users learn to discard pills, salts, cathartics and purgatives generally as they are too great a shock to any average system.

Families wishing to try a free sample bottle can obtain it postpaid by addressing Dr. W. H. Caldwell, 419 Washington St., Monticello, Ill. A postal card with your name and address on it will do.

If You are Subject to Colds This Editorial will Interest You.

A Great Majority of People Get One or More Colds Every Season and It is of Vital Interest to All to Learn How to Avoid and Relieve Colds Quickly, Since Colds are Said to be Contagious.

Some people think colds are only caught through exposure. This in return is contradicted by the fact that Arctic explorers are peculiarly free from colds. It is more generally accepted that colds are the result of civilized life, due to super-heated rooms and a very rapid change in temperature which causes the nerve centers to be depressed, and still more largely due to contagion—one member of a family imparting a cold to another by sneezing or coughing.

A cold means nothing if relieved quickly. That such a purpose may be accomplished, a quick aid to a cold is an essential. A remedy especially devised to relieve colds quickly is PERUNA.

PERUNA contains such ingredients that have an especially beneficial influence upon the inflamed mucous membranes and the quicker these mucous membranes are given the benefit of a remedy like PERUNA, the quicker the relief and the less contagion.

A neglected cold may become a serious menace to one's own life, and far worse, may endanger one's family.

We insure our homes against fire, our lives against death. Why should we not insure ourselves against colds if possible by having a medicine in the family chest that can be used at once?

PERUNA is a reliable household remedy for colds and should be in every home, for there should be a desire to combat a cold as quickly as possible. This is enlightened hygiene.

People who are feeble and run down are more subject to colds than persons in normal health. Such persons need outdoor life and PERUNA to help build up a strong constitution. If you have a poor appetite that is often a warning that you probably need a tonic like Peruna for Peruna aids the digestive organs. When your appetite is fair and work and exercise do not quickly tire you, your susceptibility to colds diminishes very much.

Persons who object to liquid medicines can now obtain PERUNA TABLETS.
